Match Preview by Thomas Perrotta

After four exciting rounds, it all comes down to this. Reigning WNPL champions Metro United face off against powerhouses Salisbury Inter in what promises to be an exhilarating WNPL and WSL Cup Final Sunday afternoon.

Inter reached the final in swashbuckling fashion, scoring 11 goals across their three fixtures and keeping three clean sheets along the way.

They haven't had an easy draw, either, with all three opponents plying their trade in the WNPL, including two of their fellow top three sides in West Adelaide and Adelaide City.

Maria Jose "Cote" Rojas has proven to be one of the stars of the tournament, netting five times in their three matches, with Emily Condon chipping in with goals in each of their last two fixtures.

After automatically progressing to the Round of 16 following a bye, the Cup saw its first heavyweight encounter as Inter drew current ladder leaders West, knowing that one would exit the tournament as a result.

The match was broken open just after half-time, as Rojas converted from the spot, before doubling her tally almost 20 minutes later to close out the scoring and guide her side past their first big test.

Fulham United followed in the Quarter-Final, at that stage having yet to have registered a win in 2021 against WNPL opposition, and were comfortably accounted for thanks to another brace to Rojas and goals to Mina Nishitani, Condon and Chantelle Ryder capping a five-star performance.

Inter appeared to have drawn the short straw yet again when they were paired against cupholders Adelaide City in the Semi-Final, but again managed to coast through with Dragana Kljajic, Condon and Rojas doing the damage in the first half before Anna Pritchard added a fourth in the second.

Rojas is without doubt the player to keep an eye on for Inter in this match, as her creativity and lethal finishing are likely to play a major role if they're to win Sunday.

The journey to the Cup Final hasn't been quite as smooth sailing for Metro as it has for Inter (with a scare or two along the way), but the women in red have handled the pressure relatively comfortably.

Having played a game more than their opponents, Metro have faced up against a mixture of WNPL quality, WSL grit and young Reserves talent on their way to the first play-off for silverware in 2021.

There hasn't been one sole star that has hauled them through the competition, with Millie Scott netting three times and Victoria Mansueto and Roxanne Dodd chipping in with two each amongst their seven individual goal scorers across four rounds.

Metro drew Football SA NTC in the Round of 32, who they are currently vying with for a top four spot in the league, but were able to ease past them thanks to three first-half goals that killed off the tie.

The Round of 16 brought them up against West Adelaide's Reserves and they were given quite a fright after Khatima Sultani's late equaliser looked to send the match to extra time or beyond, but Scott's second of the game in the 88th minute earned them a hard-fought 3-2 win.

Flinders Flames took a surprise lead in the Quarter-Final when they converted from the spot inside ten minutes, but a Dodd double and strikes by Chanel Todino and Laura Stockdale ensured they ran away with the victory.

A Mansueto goal in the second minute of the Semi-Final, and a second by Lauren Steer on 20 minutes, took the pressure off early as they ground out a 2-1 win over Comets to seal passage to the showpiece event.

Sunday's game presents an opportunity for Metro to claim a second successive trophy, becoming the holders of the WNPL title and WNPL and WSL Cup simultaneously, so they'll be hoping for just that.
